

ERIK STRAMBLAD

BIO:

Erik Stramblad was born and raised in Galveston, TX and takes great pride in being an active member of the community. He served in the US Navy as a Seabee from 2009-2013 in support of the Global War on Terror, Global Peace Operation Initiatives, Humanitarian Missions, and Disaster Response. He graduated from Texas A&M at Galveston with a BS/MS in Maritime Administration & Logistics. Currently, he manages fabrication and ship repair projects at Gulf Copper Dry Dock & Rig Repair in Galveston. When Erik is not working/volunteering, he enjoys spending his time with family and friends, surfing and fishing along the Texas coast as well as abroad.

When it comes to Erik's Professional Volunteer Positions, he serves on the following:

Board of Directors – Galveston Seafarer's Center

Board of Directors – Galveston Propeller Club